Pairing the remote control

1) If the TV turns on automatically and the first time installation screen appears but the TV does not react to the remote control, it will need to be paired with the set. To achieve this, press and hold the centre two coloured buttons at the bottom of the remote control for a few seconds. The power light will then blink 5 times to confirm the TV and remote control are paired.

2) If the TV does not automatically turn on, use the standby button on the set (not the remote control). Once on, press the standby button on the TV set once. This will prompt the 'pairing menu' to appear, scroll through and highlight 'Pair your remote' by pressing the CH+ or CH- TV buttons to scroll up or down. Then press the TV set's standby button to confirm your selection. Now press and hold the centre two coloured buttons at the bottom of the remote control for a few seconds to pair with the set. The power light will blink 5 times to confirm the TV and remote control are paired.

FreeviewHD

To receive Freeview channels, in particular Freeview HD channels, you will need a Digital TV aerial and be in a good Freeview coverage area.
You can check coverage for your postcode at www.freeview.co.uk.

Please note that any Freeview HD channels found during tuning will be placed in channel positions above 100. For example, 101 (BBC1 HD) 102 (BBC2 HD) etc.

FreeviewPlay

Freeview Play brings together live TV viewing with "catch up" TV services such as BBC iPlayer, ITV player, More4 and Demand 5. The Freeview Play Explore app features a carousel of genres to select from when searching for programmes, such as sport, comedy, dramas and soaps, etc. Content is made up from recommendations of the major broadcasters and offers an alternative means of searching.

Note that to use the full functionality of Freeview Play your set must be connected to the internet.

4 First time installation

1. Languages
Select your preferred on screen display language. This will change the language in which the menus and associated information is displayed in. When set up has been completed, this can be changed by selecting Menu > Settings > Language

2. Country Selection
Select the correct flag for the country in which the set will be used in. This will enable the set to correctly install the functions applicable in the country of use.

3. Network setup
You can connect the TV to your broadband router or wireless network in order to take advantage of the Smart functions. If you connect the TV to your router using an Ethernet cable (recommended) this step will be skipped. Follow the on screen prompts to connect to your wireless network. You can set up the Network connection later in the network menu.

A network cable was not detected. To continue with the installation process, please select one of the options below.
Use Wireless Network / Skip Network Setting

4. Environment of Use
Home Mode: For normal use, by default it is set to a power saving mode which reduces the energy used by up to 25% (by reducing the power to the LED/LCD panel). This can be changed in the picture mode settings.

NOTE: In Home Mode, the TV will switch itself to the standby mode after 4 hours in the event that the buttons on the remote control or TV set are not used.

Store Mode: For store display use. The picture is adjusted to optimum settings. The store demonstration will appear on the screen automatically after two minutes.

5. TV Installation – Audio.
Depending on how you use / install your TV, select the appropriate setting. The sound settings on the TV will adjust to suit the type of installation.
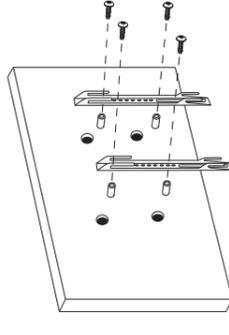

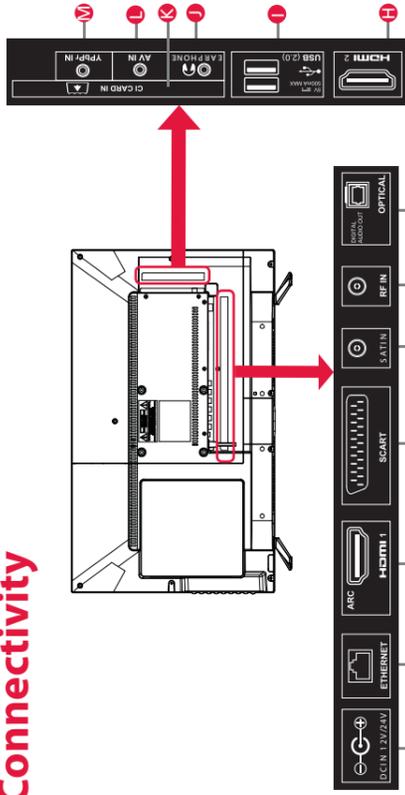

Wall-mount / TV Stand

6. Default Source
Select the source which you use the most. If Digital TV (Freeview) is chosen, then at the next step, the set will tune in and default to Digital TV (Freeview). If one of the other sources is selected, then the set will not tune in at this stage and default to that input. If it is required to tune the set in later, this can be achieved by selecting Menu > Channels
